
Joker Seville Babylon Two Plays Walcott

walcott's later drama: from joker to remembrance - the joker of seville (1978), and o babylon! (1978), which i have loosely included in this later phase, present various transitional features. the characteristic aspects of the later achievement are most fully represented in pantomime (1980) and remembrance (1980).1 both these plays, on which this article concentrates, have been bibliographic details - yale university - of calling me don juan, the joker, and it's true what i do may undo a woman, but i renew her and honor her with dishonor.
